GUIDANCE NOTES

A place on a Course or Event is offered on the basis of one handler training one dog. Neither of the places can be transferred. Training fees are payable in advance and are non refundable in the event of absence.

Handlers undertake to ensure that any dog being brought to the venue has been vaccinated or homoeopathically protected against distemper, viral hepatitis, leptospirosis and parvovirus.

Handlers must not attend training with a bitch in season, nor any dog which is suffering from (or has been in contact with) a contagious disease, within three weeks of that event.

Handlers accept that training at Berkshire Dog Training is undertaken at their own risk and that the conduct of their dog remains their responsibility at all times.

Spectators are welcome (unless for an Event where paid Spectator agility training is stipulated) however they must not interfere with the training.

Whilst every reasonable care will be taken to ensure the safety of dogs, handlers, spectators and personal possessions whilst on the training venue, Berkshire Dog Training and any individual associated with the organisation accept no liability for any loss, damage or injury to dogs, persons or property, howsoever caused.

Please park sensibly and respect the privacy of the property owners. Do not leave any litter behind (including poo bags) when you leave.

Non-compliance with the Guidance Notes may result in your expulsion from a Course or Event.

I confirm that the information I have provided on this form is true to the best of my knowledge.
I have read and agree to comply with, the Guidance Notes.
I agree to the Terms and Conditions of Berkshire Dog Training.
